HISTORICAL SOCIETY PROGRAM

The Mattapoisett Historical Society presented a program last Thursday night that proved to be one of tremendous interest both historically and architecturally. Mrs. Gladys Evenson of the Wareham Historical Society showed slides of the restoring of the Fearing Tavern in Wareham. The top view on the cover was taken before the start of the project and the bottom view shows the progress on the outside of the building to date.

The undertaking was formidable, for, although the great beams of the building were sound, the

APRIL SHOWER OF... FOOD VALUES

Even on April Fools Day, we wouldn't try to kid you. We want you for a regular customer. Ask some of our customers why they shop at Little Bay and you'll get several answers. Most like the store because it's modern, bright and large enough to display the great variety of products that we carry. They like the solid savings on name brand goods. They like the genuine courtesy and friendly service of our employees. They also enjoy the extra bonus of S&H Green Stamps. Why do we offer all this? We like pleasing customers.

275 years of use and structural changes had taken a certain toll. Walls had to be removed. Plaster had to be replaced. Layers of paint had to be peeled off. The first slides showed the original condition and then step by step Mrs. Evenson recorded the transformations. Every window was replaced with new specially made frames. The doorway was replaced with an entire new unit made in the style of the period. Every room has a fireplace. But new, small fireplaces had been built inside the great old fireplaces. When these were removed the originals were perfect.

The common room had a wall that had been added. This was removed. A new wide board pine floor was laid over the massive old beams to replace a more, modern hardwood floor that had been added at some period. The bar was built back just exactly as it was,, since the measurements were taken from the window frame where the marks of the removed bar were easi-

In the attic, the wooden grill for the bar was found intact and this is now restored to its proper function. The grate has a gate which swung to the ceiling when the bar was open for business, and the S hook that held it open was found still in place.

Mrs. Evenson said that four rooms are now completely restored and furnished. These are in the original, oldest part of the structure. Only two beams were found badly damaged. These were replaced with massive beams hand hewn by an 80-year old craftsman. Now that these beams are in place, no difference is visible. The paneling of the lower floor has long ago disappeared but the bedrooms above contain some paneling of great beauty. Mrs. Evenson mentioned that Henry Ford made an offer of $20,000 for this paneling but was refused. When the layers of paint were removed it was found that the original stain had penetrated the old pine too deeply to be removed, so the paneling was painted.

In one of the bedrooms it is finished in natural wood. Truck loads of plaster and wood and other debris were removed. Some of the old shell plaster was saved for display. Every window is set in an indentation which leaves a little shelf

GRANGE NEWS

Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its bimonthly meeting Friday night with the worthy master, William Sylvia, presiding. After a short business meeting, dance records were played by David Bradley. Joseph Alves and Alan Hickey were reported ill.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served by Jane and Dorothy Wheeler.

A public whist party will be held in the Mattapoisett Grange Hall this Thursday afternoon at 1:30 P.M. to benefit the painting fund.

The regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Subordinate Grange will be held this Thursday night, with the youth group in charge of the lecturer's program.

The Grange Monday night whist party, April 5th, will be in charge of Mr. Otto Kellish, Mrs. Rita Sylvia and Mrs. Gladys Pearson.

The committee for the auction to be held in the Grange Hall Saturday night, April 24th, will meet in the Grange Hall this Wednesday night, March 31st, to arrange plans. This is the big project for the painting fund.

EXPRESSES THANKS

Mrs. Frank Kouble, chairman of Social Activities for the Mattapoisett Woman's Club, would like to thank all those who helped out, or donated time or articles to the rummage sale held recently. Also, a special thanks to Jean Hirons for making the posters.

The work and the care that this group of Wareham people have lavished on this structure has resulted in a truly beautiful restoration. Many rooms are still to be done. Among these is a fascinating old kitchen.

The Wareham Historical Society plans to open the tavern on the first of July so that the public can enjoy tours of one of the oldest buildings still standing in the area. Indians and Redcoats menaced this building. It survived them and now has been rescued from the most persistent danger of all - the ravages of time.

HERBS EXPLAINED AT CLUB MEETING

The use of herbs was explained in a Tinga Tea Table Talk at the meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club last Thursday afternoon in the Congregational Church parish hall. Miss Margaret E. Thomas, co-owner of Greene Herb Gardens in Greene, Rhode Island, speaker, opened her talk giving a history of herbs.

She then showed several herb plants she had brought with her and explained each one and what foods they went best with. Some of the

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, MARCH 23.

Lloyd's Market and Hartley's Garage met head on in the Rochester Bowling League and after the dust had settled, both teams were tied for first place in the final round with two more nights to go. Eddie Graham knocked over 426 ducks to lead Lloyd's to a 2-1 win over the garage. Wally Wojtkonski rolled a 392 to save one point for the losers. Knotty Pine Cafe and Sturtevant & Hook tangled in another 2-1 match with S & H taking two points on Sherm Fearing's 392. Barney Jefferson pinned a 370 for the Cafe. A 408 by Ed Leary sparked Hiller's Garage to a 2-1 win over Herb's TV Shop. Herb's top gunner was Maury Gifford firing a 357 triple. Big John Cebula once again paced Hartley Saw Mill with a 357 and two points from the Woodchoppers. Captain Stu Lawrence led his team with a 357.

FALSE REPORTS CLOSE SCHOOLS

School was interrupted at both the Regional High School and the Center School, Mattapoisett last week due to false bomb reports. Pupils at Regional were evacuated, to stand outside without coats for over an hour until buses could take them home. They lost a full day. Thursday Center School was evacuated to the Congregational Church until a search could be made. Since it was a half day session for them, they were sent home at noon as scheduled.

STUDENTS OF ORRHS TO PRESENT CONCERT

Once again the students of the music department, under the direction of Mr. Zavan Mazmanian, will present a Spring Concert for the benefit of all the residents in the Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester area.

The concert will take place this coming Sunday, April 4th, at 2:30 P.M., in the Gilbert D. Bristol auditorium. This is the third and final program of the year.

The youngsters have been working hard preparing this concert for the entertainment of everyone.

The Glee Club, orchestra and band will perform. There will also be instrumental and vocal solos by various individuals.

A program has been planned to satisfy the musical tastes of all. Here is an opportunity to enjoy a relaxing and enjoyable family Sunday afternoon listening and watching these young people perform, and - best yet - admission is free.

With the adverse publicity received by teenagers today, because of the actions of a minority group, it should be noted that programs of this type are extra curricular activity by these students, and the best way to show your appreciation is to fill the auditorium this Sunday afternoon.

COMMUNION SUNDAY

Sunday, April 4th, is Communion Sunday at the 8 o'clock Mass at St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett. The next meeting of the Rosary Altar Society will be on Wednesday, April 7th.

ATTENDED PRESIDENTS' CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Paul Gary, president, and Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr. represented the Rochester Woman's Club at a meeting of the Third District Presidents' Club held at Lafayette House in Foxboro last Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served. After the business meeting, Miss Beverly Brookfield of Sharon entertained the group. Miss Brookfield was formerly a teacher in an orphanage in Japan and she presented colored slides of that country and executed a charming dance in authentic Japanese costume. She told of her plans to go to Malaysia soon to serve for two years in the Peace Corps.

SUCCESSFUL SALE HELD

A very successful food and white elephant sale was held at the Rochester Woman's Club on Saturday afternoon, March 27, by members of the club's ways and means committee. Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr. was general chairman and was assisted by Mmes. Wesley Davoll and Merton Hartley. Mrs. George Church was in charge of the white elephant table which featured many unique items. Mrs. Paul Gary and Mrs. Henry Smith presided over the tea table, which was centered with a lovely bowl of jonquils, pussy willows and sweet smelling yellow acacia, arranged by Mrs. Hartley.

"SLAVE DAY"

Members of Mr. Giles Dunn's 9th grade church school class at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church will conduct a "Slave Day" next Saturday. Those wishing to obtain the services of one or more "slaves" may contact Jane Wordell or Anne Silsby. Among odd jobs being performed are washing paint, windows or cars, raking yards, spring cleaning, moving furniture or any other duties the householder can think of.

This event is to help raise money for the Lenten project, and contributions will be accepted for the work done. These "slaves" have been trained by kindly masters at home and are guaranteed to perform well.
